Spokesman Asserts Conference Centered On 'Army Problems'

TOKYO, April 10.—(INS)-General MacArthur and Army Secretary Pace concentrated purely on immediate army problems during their two and a half hour conference yesterday, International News Service was told in Tokyo today.

Reports from Washington stated that Pace carried a reaffirmation from the Capitol to MacArthur in his handling of the Korean War and a request he remain in the background on any political developments.

An official spokesman at Mac-Arthur's Headquarters, however, denied that Pace brought with him a "crackdown" on political statements by MacArthur. Tokyo sources said the meeting concerned such things as rotation for combatmen who MacArthur thinks have already served too long in the Korea lines and replacement and flow of equipment. Other sources told International News Service that published reports that MacArthur asked Pace for authority to bomb Manchurian bases were "purest speculation."

It was indicated that such policy matters would go directly to the joint chiefs of staff rather than to policy decisions on where the American army will be used.

Declines Comment

A spokesman for Pace declined comment on the matter. The two men met alone, without aides, in MacArthur's spacious downtown Tokyo office Monday Arthur situation.

(I. N. S. War Correspondent) TOKYO, April 10 .- Powerful Chinese Communist resistance checked a 30-mile-wide United Nations assault today as it neared North Korea's giant Hwachon reservoir.

The stemming of the Allied drive was reported in a Tuesday night field dispatch from the ridge-creased central front. The dispatch said the day's strongest Chinese opposition was encountered in the vicinity of the swollen Pukhan river east of the enemy-abandoned hub of Hwachon.

As a result of the enemy's action in opening the Hwachon dam's 18 sluice gates, the water in the 15-mile-long hydroelectric power pool was 200 feet deep, the dispatch related.

FAST GROWING WORLD

Even for a world at peace, not fearful of a catastrophic war, earth's rapidly increasing population will present a serious problem in the decades to come. It is growing at the rate of nearly one per cent a year, and the total now is estimated as 2,378,000,000. This may be an underestimate because of large gains in the last decade where information is not ac- steps" of his master's sandals. curate. This is a figure that could be contemplated with reasonable equanimity and without invoking of the dread theory of Malthus, since earth can produce food enough to supply those billions if there could be assurance of economic demand to justify its adequate distribution. 'EARS STOPPED UP WITH PORK'

Memories are short, and facts and figures are easily forgotten. The chances are that most Americans have only a hazy idea of just how much the cost of their government has risen in the past 10 years. So some figures compiled by the National Small Business Association should come as a high-

In 1940, it cost a little more than $75,000,000 to run the Department of Commerce-in 1950 the bill was $863,000,000. In 1940, the Department of the Interior lived on a budget many weeks to come, whether or of about $1,385,000. Last year's bill was close to $568,500,000.

In 1940, the taxpayers supported the Department of lives of thousands in the province Labor to the tune of some $18,500,000. Last year the assessment was $257,000,000.

In 1940, it must be remembered, the late President Roosevelt had been in office for two terms, and the government had been greatly expanded. Yet now the cost or running the major departments make the 1940 budgets look like peanuts!

The Evening Outlook, of Santa Monica, Calif., hit the nail on the head when, after listing these figures, it said: "If the American people have any political intelligence or any sense of their own self-interest, they will demand an end to the colossal extravagance of the federal government that is threatening to bankrupt this country . . . The demand must grow in volume and insistence until it will finally be heard by those legislators and bureaucrats who hitherto have had their ears stopped up with pork."

'PEACE' MARCHES TO WAR

The latest report of the House Committee on Un-American Activities is actually old stuff. It is hardly news that Bolshevist peace offensives, including the one now under way, are cynical attempts to disarm and paralyze the marked victims of aggression and their defenders.

The success of such an offensive would permit Russia to win bloodless victories of the type Hitler achieved at Munich -to gain the fruits of aggression without having to fight for talking peace to the enemies of the proletariat in order to the student will have earned a them. Lenin said long ago the cheapest victories are won by weaken their will to resist.

But what the committee's reiteration of this lacks in thing. novelty it makes up for in the exhaustive evidence it has included. Yet the devious device of using "peace" campaigns to they don't have a sheepskin for a help win a projected war is well calculated to deceive straightforward minds. A Bolshevik "peace offensive" is just as much a military weapon as a smokescreen, and has similar effects. When nations opposed to aggression warn their people of this, Communists cry in chorus that the ruling circles of these lands are exposing their fear of peace. Bogus peace campaigns, the committee emphasizes, serve other purposes as well. In the United States, for instance, they enable Communists to compile a huge sucker list from the names of those they have fooled once and presumably can Communist movement is strong enough, they can compile an even large blacklist for purposes of retaliation. How can some peace-loving persons for instance, be deceived by "peace" movments whose avowed aim is to arouse world hatred against their own country to a pitch of war psychosis?

United Nations has just come up with a report that in most countries women marry younger than men do. But does the outfit remember Korea?

The Nimitz Commission—3

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 10 .- Such is the cynicism of our day that most Republican Senators look upon the President's Commission on Internal Security and Individual Rights as merely a political "bellringer"-a loud empty noise to attract favorable attention.

They put this so-called Nimitz Commission in the same category with the Commission on Civil Rights which enabled the President to point with alarm to a number of social evils and promise to bring about prompt reform in return for his election majority. Candidate Truman in 1948 got the support of all the militant minorities, along with the support of the organized do-gooders, but he has not been able to deliver any of his promises. It is doubtful that he ever believed he could deliver. It is more than doubtful that the Fair Dealers are any more liberal about personal liberties than most Republicans are.

Same Reasoning Applies

The same reasoning applies to the President's alleged determina-tion to find a balanced formula for Commie-hunting. The nation desperately needs some system to protect both its own life and the reputation of innocent men who are sometimes caught in the toils of McCarthyism. But it seems significant the President did not set up the Nimitz Commission until the pre-election year of 1951. Any forthcoming report is sure to fall into 1952 when he or some other Fair Deal candidate can make political hay of it.

Senator Nixon of California is one of several Republicans who called for a Nimitz-type commission last year when the big battle of McCarthyism was being fought out in the Tydings committee. Campaigning against Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas whom he defeated, Nixon made no apologies for the House Committee on Un-American Activities of which he was then a member. But he continued to call for an extra-political investigation of Reds-in-government, and today he is one of the few Republicans who believe that some good may come out of the Nimitz group, when and if it ever becomes active.

More than most men who have known the thrill of the spy-hunt. Nixon stresses the protection of innocent or harmless bystanders. One duty of the Nimitz Commission, he believes, should be to swing the weight of public opinion to the defense of a Communist suspect who proves to be innocent or to be reformed. Nixon is indignant, for example, about the handling of the Larry Parks case. He thinks it would be a blunder of policy if Parks were deprived of his livelihood. and driven underground again after having freed himself from the Red network and honestly confessed his mistake. Not only is there an obvious injustice done to Parks, but all other ex-Reds like him are thus warned to stay in hiding or to lie to investigating committees. Matter Of Senatorial Immunity Nixon, whom few people would think of as a liberal on such matters, is personally willing to have the Nimitz Commission examine into the matter of Senatorial immunity. This is a touchy subject for freshman Senator, and Nixon has no real hope that anything can be done about it. But he does recognize the harm that a heedless Senator can do by smearing people without proof and without being acountable for such mischief. Nixon thinks that this matter falls into the general pattern of study which a well-run Nimitz-type commission would be expected to take up.

Like everyone else who has given serious thought to the problem, Nixon feels that the Nimitz group will stand or fall upon the integrity and efficiency of its members and staff. A mere statement of good intentions by respectable investigators is meaningless. The Commission must begin with the admission that there is a clear and present danger from Communist infiltration. It is all right for the members to be liberal, but their liberalism must not consist of being merely 'anti-anti-Communist Nixon does not believe that the Nimitz Commission will do away entirely with Congressional Commie-chasing. He thinks, however, that the better the Commission performs, the less Congress will be inclined to investigate. Being a man of the world, Nixon hardly expects politicians to stop behaving like politicians. Whenever there is a Redprobe on Capitol Hill, there is the probability of political hay-making.

Moreover, says Nixon: "Even if we ever had a Communist investigation without politics some people would never believe it. The best way to get at the truth, and to get the truth accepted, is through a non-partisan commission. Nixon is right about all this, but there's always that final hitchis it possible to put together a completely non-partisan commission on this subject relating to McCarthyism? It reminds you of what a French philosopher once said about true love and ghosts. People talk about such things, but nobody's ever encountered them.

You Can Even Choose It for Economy!

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

It is true, of course, that when men and women move up to Cadillac, their motivating thought is not economy. Their hearts are set on owning the "Standard of the World."

But if they needed another impulse to move them to Cadillac, it could certainly be found in the car's remarkable record for practicality.

Even on the basis of its initial cost, a Cadillac represents a surprisingly sound automotive investment. Indeed, some half million American motorists are driving other makes of cars which actually cost them more than they would have had to invest if they had purchased new Cadillacs!

And the surprise is no less when you look to the everyday aspects of Cadillac's economy. Few could ask for greater mileage from a gallon of gasoline. And the car's freedom from the needs of service-beyond the routinehas long been traditional.

And finally, of course, is Cadillac's tremendous capacity to serve-the years and years and years of wonderful utility designed and built into it.

Yes-when you want a Cadillac, you want it for what it is, and does, and represents. But what an added satisfaction it is to reflect that it is also so eminently practical!

We deeply regret that we are unable to deliver new Cadillac cars without some delay. But the demand for the car is unprecedented-and much of the company's energies and materials are now being devoted to the needs of national security. Once the car is delivered into your hands, however, we know you'll agree that-patience never brought a richer reward.

Lost Leadership

Great Britain he explained has 50 million inhabitants crowded into an area smaller than many states in this country Beginning 150 years ago, Great Britain began building a great industrial business, with a population of seven million persons, and became a leader in world trade. YES, HADACOL MAKES IT POSSIBLE

Aches and Pains, Stomach Distress, Weak, Run-down Conditions and Nervousness When Due To Lack of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron In Your System

Mrs. A. Plonka of 3202 S. Aberdeen, Chicago, Ill.: "My daughter Carmelita, who is 10 years old and in the fifth grade, had always been underweight and I had to positively force her to eat. She had no interest in food whatsoever, but I knew that she had to eat. When we were visiting my mother in Missouri over ing my mother in Missouri over the Christmas holidays she suggested I give Carmelita HAD-ACOL. I bought a large bottle of it that same day and was amazed at the change in Carmelita. Her appetite picked right up and she now eats three hearty meals a day plus inbetween snacks. I have really praised HADACOL, and highly recommend it."

G. E. Moncus, 221 Columbus St., Montgomery, Ala.: "Quite some time ago I began to have indigestion and sour stomach. My food just didn't digest right. My food just didn't digest right. I'd get a full, 'gassy' feeling after I ate. This affected my appetite and my weight. I was run-down, too. My wife started taking HADACOL and so did my daughter. I saw how much it had helped them, so I started taking it. And HADACOL has certainly helped me, too. My stomach never bothers me any more. I have a terrific appetite stomach never bothers me any more. I have a terrific appetite and have gained weight. I have lots of energy and just feel good in every way. I think HADA-COL is wonderful. Mrs. W. O. Jones, 7244 N. Bell St., Chicago, Ill.: "I am a housewife and mother of three children. I had been feeling very run-down, would tire so easily, and just felt listless. My mother-in-law suggested I take HADACOL, as she had heard of it through friends of hers. I just took it for a few days, when I noticed I was feeling stronger and seemed to have more energy. I continued taking HADACOL and it has certainly built up my strength. I am no longer run-down, don't tire nearly as much. I am now on my sixth large bottle of HADACOL, and intend to con-tinue taking it."

William J. Dunlap, 4404 Freer St., Apt. 2, Detroit, Mich.: "Along with the pains I suffered my body had a tired, worn-out feel-ing. I had to force myself to keep going. I read about HADA-COL and decided to give it a try. Am now on my fifth bottle and would not be without an ample supply. My first bottle gave me astonishing relief, and at this time of writing I feel better, without a pain or ache. Am a dairy employee, 54 years old. Veteran of two world wars. Active overseas in both. Directors Meet

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO the late Babe Ruth described Leo Durocher as "the freshest busher that ever hit a baseball camp." It did not take long for fans and sports writers to realize the immortal home run king had given an apt description of the current boss of the New York Giants. There is no doubt it—the new shortstop who was to become as famous as anybody in the game was just as good as he said he was. At that time, he had unflagging enthusiasm, and he still has. He was a fire-brand then, and he is yet a fire-brand. Twentyfive years ago children were supposed to be seen and not heard but nobody could silence "The Lip". On Leo's first trip on a train to camp he introduced himself to Babe and induced Babe to play cards. Leo took charge of the game and within 36 hours he was taking charge of the Yanks on the field. He was always what he calls a "take charge" guy, according to Pat Robinson of the INS. He even told pitchers where to throw to batters. Miller Huggins said he would become great shortstop, and that happened. Waite Hoyt described him as the All-America Out" and judging from his batting averages from .203 to .227, Waite termed him right. The rest of the Yanks didn't care if he ever got a hit because they were loaded with redoubtable sluggers. All they asked was that he cut off base hits, and he did that well. He never let up for a minute, chattered like a magpie, encouraged teammates and directed plays. He was a born leader and still is. He yet drives the Giants with the same vigor and it might be said baseball never knew a louder or brasher "holler guy" and he is still "hollering." A FISHERMAN of national importance claimed today that "fish ing isn't simply a dignified way of doing nothing-it's a nerve tonic." Dr. R. W. Eschmeyer of Washington, vice president of the Sports Fishing Institute, recently told the Izaak Walton League of America in Cincinnati that "fish conservation is human conservation." former fisheries expert for the TVA told today's session of the fourday confab which ends tomorrow: "Fishing isn't simply a dignified way of doing nothing. It's a nerve tonic. The 20 million Americans who turn to fishing as their favorite means of mental relaxation should have satisfactory fishing if at all possible." Eschmeyer said certain reforms in fishing resources policies are needed to keep today's army of anglers contented. In another address before the league convention Shirley W. Allen of the University of Michigan said forest management "is not the business of monkeying with a forest to see if you can make some money out of it and at the same time fix it so the public cannot enjoy it.'

The fragrance comes from a garbage dump which is being used by an Ohio citizen who seems to have the idea that owning a piece of land in Pennsylvania gives him the right to set up a stinking nuisance.

In the Monday morning meeting of the county commissioners the matter was again brought up for discussion. "The man now has no trespassing signs on the property' said Commissioner Travers. can not believe that because he owns the piece of land in Mahoning township that this gives him a right to set up a health hazard and I believe an information should be brought against him.'

How can you explain these times to a boy?

To you, the world is in a pretty sorry state. But not to a boy. He's growing up in times like these. He doesn't remember anything much different.

Perhaps you ought to remind him that many precious things may be taken from him, temporarily. Many prized American freedoms, rights and opportunities must be suspended for a while, as the price of arming the nation against aggression.

But warn him that there may be danger of losing these freedoms permanently. Because there are some people who, for years, have been saying, "The government ought to own and run things. The railroads, for example, and the electric light and power companies." And right now the defense program may give these people a new opportunity for putting over their idea of government ownership and permanent controls.

And tell him that the real name of this idea is socialism, and that most Americans don't want it. For socialism means that people have less money, and fewer rights and privileges.

Tell him we all must make sacrifices today. But tell him, also, that when we give up any of our freedoms, we must be sure to keep the claim check that says, "Return to bearer on demand."

To help everyone remember the difference between temporary emergency powers and permanent socialism, we publish this
